Northern Kentucky Right To Life

The March for Life

January 22, 2021

On the 48th anniversary of the infamous decision of the Supreme Court exercising its raw judicial power over the lives of the defenseless unborn, we join with a multitude of others in many cities across this nation to give witness to the sanctity of all innocent human life and to the intrinsic evil act of abortion.

Again, we march on paper. We openly lend our names to urge the adoption of a mandatory Human Life Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America.

WE HAVE TAKEN A STAND!
WE WILL NOT COMPROMISE!
AND WE WILL BE HEARD!

THE CONDITION FOR AMERICA'S SURVIVAL

During his September 1987 second visit to the United States, Pope John Paul II spoke numerous times about the intrinsic evil of abortion. In his farewell address, he clearly warned Americans that their very survival depended on how and when the United States would conclude the issue of abortion:

"This is the dignity of America, the reason she exists, the condition for her survival – yes, the ultimate test of her greatness: to respect every human person, especially the weakest and most defenseless ones, those as yet unborn."

Non-Negotiables

If a candidate agreed with you on every issue, but supported the legalization of slavery or the legalization of child abuse, while arguing he was personally opposed, but he would not impose his morality on others, would you vote for him? Would he disqualify himself from your support and vote regardless of the office he was seeking?

Abortion is the ultimate child abuse. The issue of abortion is the disqualifying issue of our times.

Abortion, contraception, human cloning and experimentation, euthanasia, assisted suicide, infanticide, and sexual activity outside of marriage are all condemned as intrinsically evil. (See Catechism of the Catholic Church, Sections 2270-2275, 2276-2279, 2292-2295, and 2370.) They are never, under any circumstances, morally permissible.

There are other issues and concerns which Christians need to address, but which are not intrinsically evil. Indifference to others, war, capital punishment, the environment, immigration, health care, drugs, and poverty are all issues which need to be concerns of Christians, but Christians can reasonably differ on the approaches to address these issues, the role of government, and the role of Church in relationship to these issues.

Refusing to Defend the Innocent

The unwillingness to draw a clear distinction between core human life issues, which are morally and intrinsically evil, and issues and concerns about which Christians can reasonably and morally differ, is simply a pro-abortion ploy to undercut the Church's opposition to the killing of unborn children by abortion, and is shamefully used by pro-abortion politicians to deceive and confuse.

"The upshot of trying to put abortion, capital punishment, and war in one package, is that it makes chaos of Catholic morals and can lead one to misinterpret God's law so that, at least by omission, he will do what is objectively evil: namely refuse to defend the innocent," teaches Fr. Richard R. Roach, S.J., Professor of Moral Theology at Marquette University.

Giving Witness

One of the simplest ways for Americans to give witness to the truth is by how they vote. Does our vote give witness to the sanctity of all innocent human life, or does it help keep the killing machine in place?

"No cause takes precedence over the preservation of innocent human life. It would be irresponsible for us to claim to be pro-life while voting for candidates who support the right to abortion." Bishop John Smith, Trenton, New Jersey

"While life is continuous, your life began when the nucleus of your father's sperm fused with the nucleus of your mother's ovum, or at fertilization…so we see that there is something important, something special, that occurs at fertilization: A new life, a new human life begins." Jerome LeJeune, M.D., Professor of Fundamental Genetics and discoverer of the Down's syndrome chromosome.

PRAY TO STOP ABORTION

"We cannot solve all the problems of the world, but let us never bring in the worst problem of all, that is to destroy love. And this is what happens when we tell people to practice contraception and abortion." Mother Teresa
